

Gilbert & Sullivan – The Men and Their Music

Parish of Amersham with Coleshill

A presentation By Paul Huggins

You are invited to hear the story of the men and their music

Paul Huggins is a member of the Gilbert & Sullivan Society which aims to encourage appreciation of the works of the famous duo.

During the 1860's Arthur Sullivan held the post of organist at two of London's fashionable churches. He turned to hymn tune writing composing both new tunes and harmonizing or arranging others. Paul will give you the opportunity to join in the congregational singing of a few that remain popular today.

The presentation is at 7.00 for 7.15 p.m. on Friday 6th March 2020 at St Mary's Church, Old Amersham
